HOLD FINAL RITES OVER FOUR VOLANT FIRE VICTIMS

Four Victims Of Fire Near Volant Are Buried Today

Funeral Services Conducted At Leesburg During Morning

ENTIRE DISTRICT
IS IN MOURNING

Fire Are Cared For By Neighbors

Two little white caskets carried all that remained of the four little victims of yesterday's holocaust in Washington township, to their final resting place in the Leesburg cemetery, while hundreds from the community stood by in sympathy.

The funeral services for the little victims of the saddest tragedy that has ever occurred in the northern end of Lawrence County were held this afternoon from the Cunningham funeral home in Leesburg, with Rev. William Lloyd, pastor of the Leesburg Presbyterian church, in charge of the services.

The children, Delia Ryder, Betty Geraldine Hedglin, Lottie Margaret Hedglin and baby Jacqueline Hedglin, were trapped in their home which had been set afire by an explosion of crude oil, placed on the fire in the kitchen stove to revive it.

Survivors At Neighbors Homes

The blaze wiped out all the possessions of the Hedglin family, and took that which was more precious in addition, the lives of the four children. Relatives are caring for the survivors of the stricken family until they can be readjusted.

It was learned today that the destroyed home was a six room structure, and that there was another stairway in the house, except the one leading out of the kitchen, but that it was not generally used.

The home had been recently owned by Charles Smith, and as far as can be learned, was not covered by insurance.

The entire Volant community is in mourning with members of the family today, the accident which so suddenly snuffed out the lives of the helpless children having cast a pall of gloom over the community.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Heavy rain of yesterday brought the leaves down in great quantities. Streets, lawns and fields are covered with a carpet of leaves in many parts of the city today. The street department employees have started hauling them away by the truck load from the paved street.

Local residents who have had occasion to drive to other parts of the state recently, say that no prettier section of the country is to be seen than right in our own county. A drive out the Eastbrook road via Volant to Leesburg and return by the Perry Highway will reveal some very beautiful scenery.

R. W. Barris who is associated with the gasoline station located between Mt. Jackson and Mahoningtown reported that he saw a flock of geese flying over Mt. Jackson about 1:45 o'clock Monday afternoon. The birds were going south and numbered approximately one hundred or more, the largest flock he has witnessed going where it is warm at one time.

His Honor Charles B. Mayne is today out in the opening hunting mushrooms. There is no doubt but that Mayor Mayne will return with plenty of mushrooms, as it is no new business for him.

Enrollment At Night School Here Surprises City School Leaders

Surprising even the most optimistic school man Monday evening, the unemployed night school which opened in the North street school showed an enrollment that indicates a genuine interest among the unemployed to improve their spare time. Because the school is divided into four nights with different classes each night it was thought that 75 might be considered as a good enrollment for the first night. The total was 146.

For some reason the study of psychology led the list in enrollment figures. This class attracted 75 with T. V. Kelley in charge as the instructor. Spelling was the next in size, 27 enrolling in this class with Miss Carrie Dice in charge. English composition had an enrollment of 25, with Miss Shirley Holbrook in charge; problems in democracy 12, with Miss Elsie Calvin in charge and trigonometry 7 with Miss Verna Wilbert in charge.

Lincoln-Garfield Tonight.

Lincoln-Garfield school opens its night classes tonight with English, biology, composition and spelling being taught. The enrollment tonight at this school will probably reach as high as that of North street Monday night and the indications now are that the total enrollment for the schools will reach 500 or 600.

One of the interesting classes in the Monday night school in North street the class in problems of democracy taught by Miss Elsie Calvin. This course is based chiefly upon

Women Better Able To Spend Tax Money, Erie Woman Declares

Nation's Only Woman County Commissioner Addresses Local Business Women

Mrs. Schluraff, Of Erie Says Women Should Be On Every Tax Spending Board

"I firmly believe that there should be at least one woman serving on every tax-spending board."

This is the opinion of United State's only woman county commissioner, Mrs. Helen M. Schluraff of Erie. And it was a point she brought out strongly last night in an address before the New Castle Business and Professional Women's Club, service club representatives and special guests. The dinner meeting, attended by 81 men and women, took place in the green room of the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Schluraff is first vice president of the national federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

"I believe this because I know that women are more careful in buying," the speaker continued. "They question costs. They study longer and do a little shopping before they let go of the money entrusted to them by the taxpayers. They have a more intimate acquaintance of values, achieved through generations of experience in doing the buying for their own families."

Believes Women Needed on Job

Mrs. Schluraff, who has been a commissioner of Erie county for the past 10 months, explained that her reason for trying for the position was that she believed it was a position where a woman was not only qualified but needed. She told a number of interesting experiences she has met during the holding of the unique office. She spoke at length about "taxation."

In Erie county we are spending one-half of our income out of relief of the poor.

She declared that the entire system of giving relief to the poor is wrong—that it penalizes thrift, increases the nation's dependents and is making people think that it is a bad thing to own their homes.

Too Many State Employees

Tax money in many cases is spent recklessly, she said. There are entirely too many state employees in every city. She reiterated her statement that women should take an active part in the spending—that they should be numbered in every tax-spending body.

Special guests of the evening were: Elmer Conner, county commissioner of Lawrence; Barton E. Richards, state assemblyman; Paul Butz, F. L. Burton, Mary Oettinger of Quota Club, Mrs. William Cosel, Council of Jewish Women; Mrs. H. Klivan and members from Grove City and Butler B. P. W. clubs.

Miss Mary Scherger, legislative chairman, was toastmistress of the evening.

Big Towboat Is Razed By Fire

Towboat Valued At $60,000
Prey To Flames In Allegheny River At Pittsburgh

(International News Service.)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 18.—Fire, following a terrific explosion of mysterious origin, early today burned to the water's edge the towboat, R. F. Winton, which was docked in the Allegheny river here. The vessel was valued at $60,000.

The force of the blast ripped the ship, a two-deck oil burning stern wheeler, to pieces and the fire spread rapidly.

None of the crew of six men headed by Capt. Walter Haffill was aboard when the explosion occurred. Once before this year, the R. F. Winton figured in what news. It was cut loose from its mooring during the night several weeks ago during a dispute between John Douglas, Jr., who leased the ship, and other boatmen over wharf rights.

Paying Taxes On Installment Plan

Many citizens are paying their taxes on the installment plan, according to City Treasurer Louis McClung. Some time ago McClung put the plan into operation and it has brought results.

Some pay weekly, others semi-monthly and still others make payments each month, all with the view of getting their taxes paid for 1932.

Acting Supervising Architect, James A. Wetmore

The prevailing wage scale shall be paid all laborers and mechanics employed on the project, as provided in the act of March 3, 1931.

Ohio Truck Owners Oppose New Law

Object To Pennsylvania Law That Requires Trucks To Have State License

Litigation by Ohio trucks interests looms as a possibility in connection with the enforcement of the anti-reciprocity act which went into effect on October 15. William Lawler, veteran motor club secretary of the Youngstown Motor club is in New Castle today and indicated that a suit might be brought to test the legality of the new act.

Under the terms of the act, effective October 15, all vehicles of other states, transporting persons or property in Pennsylvania for compensation are compelled to take out Pennsylvania plates if they use the highways here for more than 15 calendar days in a year.

Patrolmen To Enforce

State highway patrol officers located here have received orders to enforce the law with the idea of getting a decision as to just how far it goes. Mr. Lawler is considering having one of the Ohio truck owners arrested here and take the case into court for a decision.

The new act abrogates all reciprocity between Pennsylvania and the other states insofar as trucks and freight carrying vehicles are concerned. If the bill means what it appears to mean it will result in all trucks of other states, using the highways of Pennsylvania for more than 15 days in the year, taking out Pennsylvania license plates. Likewise it will probably result in Pennsylvania trucks being forced to take out plates in the other states.

Believe Trooper Permanently Hurt

Pvt. Tmerson Wimer, Injured
At Camp This Summer, Is Placed In Cast

Belief is expressed by the attending physicians that Emerson Wimer, private in Troop F, 103rd Cavalry, who suffered injuries to his back in a fall from his horse at Mt. Gretna this summer, will be permanently injured.

Private Wimer has been placed in a cast at the hospital in the hopes of improving his condition. He has been confined to a bed in the New Castle hospital ever since his return from camp in July, and his condition has not responded to treatment.

WILL ROGERS says:

(Special To The News)

BAIRES, Oct. 18.—Say, had a great trip over those Andes mountains. Our highest altitude was twenty-one thousand, five hundred feet.

They have oxygen tubes at each seat, but I guess I am so windy anyhow that I didn't use any. I kept prowling up forward and talking and looking with the pilot, an American, boy named Wagoner. They are all American pilots on this whole trip.

We could see the railroad thousands of feet below, winding its way over and through, but high tariffs between each country have killed off the trade and it's not running anymore. So that's one way to help the railroads.

It's just the starting of spring down here now. Flew over hundreds of miles of checkerboard green fields like Kansas, or Iowa, and the fattest and biggest cattle you ever saw.

Yours,

Will Rogers

Final Decision In Rates Case Is Expected Shortly

Grove City, Sandy Lake, Stoneboro And Volant
Protest Unfair Gas Rates

FINAL ARGUMENTS
HAVE BEEN MADE

(International News Service.)

HARRISBURG, Oct. 18.—The public service commission today had before it for final consideration the rate case instituted by the boroughs of Grove City, Sandy Lake, Stoneboro and Volant against the Union Heat and Light Company.

Final arguments in the case were heard by the full commission late yesterday afternoon. The arguments were largely technical and revolved around various units of valuation fixed by the company for rate-making purposes.

Ask Fair Rate

Attorney Merle Klinesmith of Grove City, who represented the protesting boroughs, asked the commission to fix a fair valuation for the company's property so that its rates might be reduced. He said the present rate for gas was 65 cents a thousand cubic feet plus a 60-cent service charge and asked the commission to slash the tariff to at least 60 cents a thousand cubic feet and abolish the service charge.

Attorney Klinesmith argued that the book value of the company was $178,000, although it claimed a book valuation of $234,000. He said the State Department of Revenue fixed the valuation of the company for taxation purposes at $270,000. The company claims the cost of reproducing its present facilities would be $374,000.

Counsel for the complainants asked the commission to find a fair figure between the two extremes.

Attorneys for the company asserted the present rates were proper and just according to the capital valuation of the company and reviewed the testimony adduced at a series of nine hearings before Commissioner S. Ray Shelby in support of their contention.

Relief Work Is Decreasing Now

There has been a decrease recently in the number of Mayor's Committee on relief workers. As yet city officials have no other big project in mind, other than East Washington street paving where the street is to be widened and the curb to be set back.

Since the formation of the body, the employees have worked on the Neshaunock river wall, north and south, Jameson park, Gaston park, Laurel boulevard park, Walton park, quarrying of stone in Ray street and also the widening of The Narrows and cleaning of Rural Avenue hillside.

Await Word Of Their Betrothal

Formal announcement of the engagement of Princess Ingrid of Sweden and Prince George of England is expected in the immediate future. The princess is a frequent visitor in London while Prince George recently passed several days in Stockholm with the Prince of Wales, where the youngest son of King George was frequently seen with the attractive daughter of Crown Prince Gustaf.

Coast School Head Missing

Fear School Superintendent
At Redondo Beach, Kidnaping Victim

BELIEVE HE FOILED
ROBBERS AT SAFE

(International News Service.)

REDONDO BEACH, Cal., Oct. 18.—Kidnaped presumably by two thugs whom he surprised in the act of opening his office safe E. B. Thomas, 33, superintendent of schools here, was the object of a widespread police search today.

From clues found in Thomas' shattered office, police surmised that the school superintendent, who returned at night to his office for documents to present to school trustees staged a terrific battle with the men before being dragged from the building.

Evidence Of Struggle

Police said there was a possibility that the kidnaping of Thomas may have been because he recognized the safe-crackers. Half of his coat was found in his office, and half in the hallway, as well as shreds from one of the bandit's coats, indicating the ferocity of the struggle.

Deep concern was felt for his safety as he was pushed into the rugged, hilly country nearby.

The school board met last night at Thomas' home. During the discussion Thomas said he felt it was necessary to return to his office to secure certain papers. Excusing himself, he left his house. His protracted absence finally alarmed the trustees, and several of them left for the office where they discovered the kidnaping.

Father Cox Has Withdrawn From Presidency Race

(International News Service.)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 18.—Father James R. Cox, jobless party presidential nominee and leader of a jobless trek to Washington, today withdrew from the race and announced he would support the candidacy of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt.

He said:

"I announce my withdrawal as a candidate for the presidency of my beloved country. In so doing I am animated solely by the consideration of the welfare of my country.

"I realize that many ballots would be cast for me if I remained as a candidate, but our political system is so ordered that I cannot be elected."

Contract Is Let To Print Names Of Local Voters

Contract for printing the street names of registered voters was let by the county commissioners today to the Miller, Pyle and Street Printing Company at their low bid of $186. There were two other bids. Those of the New Castle Printing Company, $253 and the Warnock Brindle Company, $249.50.

The names of those who are registered for the coming election are printed on the list, for the information of politicians and others who may be interested in getting out the vote. Before the act authorizing the printing of the names was passed by the legislature, politicians had to copy the names off the registry lists.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—On the heels of Henry Ford's instructions to his army of employees throughout the country to vote the Republican ticket, President Hoover will journey to Detroit this week-end and join hands with the motor magnate in an effort to keep restless Michigan bound to its traditional Republican moorings.

Michigan's 19 electoral votes represent no inconsiderable stake in the battle for the mid-west.

Is Danger Spot.

Admittedly the state is a danger spot for the Republicans. No industrial city has been harder hit than Detroit in the last three years of depression. Unemployment has been rampant and distress acute.

With this in mind, Mr. Hoover probably will elect to speak to his Detroit audience on relief and unemployment plans. His decision to go to Detroit was largely influenced by Ford, and by the worried appeals from Republican leaders of the state that unless the tide can be turned

At exactly 3:24 a. m.—one year to the minute since Edison died—a group of officials and employees of his company placed a wreath on the inventor's grave.

Memorial services will be held at noon in the laboratory of the Edison plant.

ROOSEVELT STARTS SECOND CAMPAIGN TOUR

In Pittsburgh On Wednesday

Will Also Make Address At
St. Louis, Mo., On Friday Night

BALTIMORE ALSO SPEAKING DATE

By RAYMOND I. BORST
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 18.—Prepared to continue his slashing attack on the Republican administration, and ready to announce his attitude on the bonus, Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt was to leave Albany today for his second invasion of the middle west, a short but "snappy" campaign in some of the border states and a "courtesy" visit to Dixie.

The Democratic presidential nominee is in a fighting mood and his advisers predict that he will deal with President Hoover without gloves from now until the campaign ends. He is aroused over what he believes is a "desperate, last minute attempt" on the part of the Republican orators to instill fear in the voters against changing administrations at Washington.

With the exception of one or two speeches in New England, and possibly one in New Jersey, the present tour will mark the close of Roosevelt's campaign outside his own state. He expects to wind up the campaign in New York City on the Saturday night before election, speaking from the same platform with Al Smith.

Before he leaves New York state tonight he will have made two urgent appeals for the election of Herbert H. Lehman, Democratic gubernatorial nominee—one in Rochester during the afternoon, and the other at Buffalo in the evening.

Three Major Talks.

Three major addresses are on the governor's schedule for the next eight days. One will be at Pittsburgh tomorrow night, the other at St. Louis on Friday night and the third at Baltimore a week from tonight. Upwards of a dozen informal speeches will be delivered on the present trip, not counting the numerous appearances on the rear platform of his private car.

Unless he switches his plans, the governor is expected to reveal his stand on the bonus at Pittsburgh. His friends have intimated that he will declare against immediate payment but will insist the federal government provide for destitute veterans.

the discussion of some of the outstanding current problems such as international relations, economics, social and political problems. It is hoped that the class will be composed of many young people, perhaps recent graduates of the senior high school who might be interested in a young people's forum for the purpose of presenting different sides of the problems of the present day. The course presupposes that the participants will have time to prepare topics for discussion from the best current sources and the importance of using the best, the most reliable sources of discussion will be stressed. The class itself will be permitted to decide whether or not a formal syllabus will be used or whether the class shall be based upon one type of problem such as international relations.

Teachers Volunteer.
The teachers in charge of the various courses have volunteered to serve in the capacity without compensation as their contribution to the further education of unemployed men and women. All of the courses being given have been asked for by the pupils themselves and no course has been suggested by the school authorities.

Unfortunately lack of equipment makes it impossible to offer business courses such as typewriting and shorthand but aside from these subjects anything can be taught if there are enough pupils asking for a course to make feasible to start a class.

Pupils can enroll in the buildings mentioned on the nights class is held. Each school will operate Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings. The schedule for North street tonight includes writing, plain geometry, algebra and English poetry.

HOOPER WILL GO TO DETROIT FOR ADDRESS

there in the final three weeks of the campaign Michigan will be lost. Enroute to Detroit, Mr. Hoover plans another day of strenuous rear-platform campaigning across a part of West Virginia and Ohio, touching portions he has not hitherto visited. All is not harmony for the Republicans in Michigan. Senator James Couzens, the independent critic of many administration policies, has been maintaining a stony silence so far as the Hoover-Curtis ticket is concerned.

Hoover To Reply.
President Hoover's appearance in Detroit Saturday night will afford him an excellent opportunity to reply to the three major speeches which Gov. Roosevelt will deliver this week in Pittsburgh, Indianapolis and St. Louis. Because of these Roosevelt speeches, the last of which will be delivered in St. Louis, Friday night, it is expected that Mr. Hoover will not prepare his own speech until the last minute.

The Hoover plans after next Saturday are still in a state of uncertainty. Worried leaders in California have been insisting that Mr. Hoover's presence on the west coast is necessary before election if his own state is to be saved. The president has been loath to undertake a Pacific journey.

Concern over California was partially relieved today by the optimistic report brought back by Secretary of the Treasury Mills, who followed

Gov. Roosevelt's trail through the state. Mills said "California is safe for Hoover." He made a similar optimistic report concerning Kansas, Utah, Wyoming and Oregon. All of these, he said, were "safe," and he ventured as well that the Republicans are holding the edge in Washington, Nebraska and Minnesota.

Charleston Stop
CHARLESTON, W. Va., Oct. 18.—President Hoover will deliver a short address in Layday Stadium here Saturday morning during a 30-minute stop in his trip to Detroit. Walter S. Hallinan, national committeeman, announced today after a telephone conversation with Lawrence Ritchey, secretary to the president.

A crowd of 20,000 is expected at the stadium. The president will be taken back to the special train immediately after the address and will continue his trip to Detroit.

The message was followed by an altar service. Mr. Bosworth and his wife sang a duet "Out of the Ivory Palace." This evening the sermon will be "Jesus of Nazareth Passes By" and a delegation of young people will be present.

Mrs. Betty Luedke of Dayton writes: "I am using Kruschen to reduce weight—I lost 10 pounds in one week and cannot say too much to recommend it."

To take off fat easily, SAFELY and HARMLESSLY—take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it is the safe way to lose unsightly fat and one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle. Get it at Eckerd's Cut Rate, New Castle Drug Co. or any drugstore in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the safest way to lose fat—money back.

But be sure and get Kruschen Salts—imitations are numerous and you must safeguard your health.

Awaits Decision On Contempt Of Court Charges

Former New Castle Woman Is Involved In West Virginia Case

(International News Service)
WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 18.—Mrs. Lena Rivers Solomon, 54, formerly of New Castle, today awaited the verdict of Federal Judge W. E. Baker on contempt of court charges filed against her.

Mrs. Solomon is alleged to have failed to file a schedule of assets after admitting bankruptcy in a petition filed in New Cumberland, Clarence Patterson of New Castle, attorney for Hiram C. Stewart and Samuel Young, complainants, informed Judge Baker that Mrs. Solomon collected $14,000 in insurance from the death of her husband. She took $10,000 of it on a world tour, he charged, and returned home after losing most of the money in Mexico. She then filed the bankruptcy petition.

A son to whom the woman had given $1,000 produced a $918.50 check in court on a building and loan company.

Those who have heard Dr. Bennett in the community Bible talks he had given the past three years in the Y. W. C. A. know the profundity of his Bible teachings and those who have heard him as he expounds the truth from the Bible are in for a spiritual treat.

The opening subject of his series of sermons will be announced later in the week and it is anticipated the services will be most successful from a spiritual standpoint.

How To Avoid Stomach Gas

First thing—throw away your magnesia, soda, and all the other stuff like that.

Then eat what you like and don't worry whether you can digest it or not. For if you will simply take a tablespoonful of mentha pepsin (artificial stomach juice) before your meals, your once weak stomach can handle anything without a bit of trouble.

No more gas, fullness, pain, bloating—all are gone, says Eckerd's Cut Rate, or you can have your money back.

FORDS ADVISE WORKMEN TO ELECT HOOVER

(International News Service)
DETROIT, Oct. 18.—Democratic leaders today bitterly assailed the action of Henry and Edsel Ford in "advising" Ford workers to vote for President Hoover.

The company's statement appeared late yesterday on the bulletin board of the Ford Rouge plant. Workers read:

"The Ford Motor Company is not interested in partisan politics. We do not seek to control any man's vote. We feel, however, that the coming election is so important to industry and employment that our employees should know our views.

"President Hoover has overcome the forces that almost destroyed industry and employment. His efforts to start the country back to work are beginning to show results. We are convinced that any break in his program would hurt industry and employment. To prevent times from getting worse, and to help them get better, President Hoover must be re-elected.

"These are our convictions and we submit them to the serious consideration of all Ford employees throughout the country, and their families."

SCARLET FEVER CASES ABATING

Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of schools, stated today that the scarlet fever scare at the Arthur McGill school was abating and that the situation seemed to be well in hand. Every boy and girl in the primary department of the school is examined each morning by the school nurses and at the first sign of sore throat or other symptoms of the disease is sent home for observation.

Better not use too many orators. The more attorneys for the defense, the more suspicious it looks.

Our theory is that the ancient civilization were not destroyed but merely gave up when too many bond issues accumulated.

Catarrhal Deafness May Be Overcome

If you have catarrhal deafness or head noises due to catarrh go to New Castle Drug, Eckerd's Cut Rate, your druggist and get 1 oz. of Par-mint (double strength) and add to it 1/4 pint of hot water and a little sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Choked nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has catarrhal deafness or head noises due to catarrh should give this prescription a trial.

DANDRUFF A Sure Way to End It

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get plain, ordinary liquid arvon from any drug store (it won't cost you more than thirty-five cents), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

At a late hour lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Frances Cope. Those participating included Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Miles, Mr. and Mrs. John Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Cope and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Anderson.

THE PARAMOUNT QUESTION

(From Chicago Daily News, Oct. 11, 1932.)

IN THE presence of so grave a crisis as that through which we are now passing PARTISAN POLITICS is of minimum importance. Whether the campaign shall result in a personal victory for Herbert Hoover or for Franklin D. Roosevelt is of very minor concern when contrasted with the WELL-BEING of 120,000,000 people. In normal times we may be able to indulge in the luxury of partisan battles and go down or up in support of political opinions.

Right now we are dealing with bread and butter FUNDAMENTALS. We have a right to consider whether the success of one party or another will the quicker provide us and ours with the NECESSITIES of normal existence. Will the election of Herbert Hoover make our jobs more secure or get our jobs back for us quicker than would the election of Franklin D. Roosevelt? Idealists may discard this as materialistic, but men and women who have watched their families suffer from want of the necessities of life, or have lived in daily dread of such a calamity, have a right to be materialistic IN SUCH BEHALF.

Going beyond the question of whether the election of Hoover or the election of Roosevelt would restore normal conditions more promptly, we have also a right to analyze the KIND of government and the SORT of policies each of these men would provide. We KNOW what the election of Hoover would mean. His program is not only definite but it is actually in operation. Already it has produced unmistakable signs of recovery, which are certain to be accelerated if he carries the November election. Concerning Roosevelt's program we have available no more than a VAGUE OUTLINE. It is not specific, and no part of it is now in operation. Unless Roosevelt becomes more specific before election day this condition is certain to make for HESITATION and DOUBT, with consequent slowing down of business and an INCREASE of unemployment.

As to the kind of government Roosevelt would give us if he were elected, we have a right to examine the CHARACTER OF THE MEN who were responsible for his nomination and who have been most active in his campaign for election. His nomination was procured after a long and bitter contest by the connivance and cooperation of WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST, WILLIAM G. MCADOO, JOHN N. GARNER, SENATOR BURTON K. WHEELER of Montana, SENATOR HUEY LONG of Louisiana. All of those men are his enthusiastic supporters today. He has also allied with him in the campaign for election such men as SENATOR BROOKHART of Iowa, SENATOR NORRIS of Nebraska and SENATORS BLAINE and LA FOLLETTE of Wisconsin. Unless Gov. Roosevelt should be guilty of ingratitude, the counsels of such men as these would carry great weight with him in the event of his election.

The question the voter must determine in this election is whether the Hoover kind of government and the Hoover type of policy shall continue as the BEST means of escape from the effects of the worldwide depression, or whether we shall turn to the UNDEFINED and UNKNOWN policies of a man who is totally unfamiliar with the magnitude or scope of problems he would confront, and who would, perforce, lend an attentive ear to the counsels of men like HEARST, GARNER, MCADOO, HUEY LONG and BURTON K. WHEELER.

Can we AFFORD to experiment at such a time as this?

WAGES OF CRIME

Does crime pay? Available figures say it does not. Criminals must think it does or there wouldn't be so many of them and so few who reform. The probability is that crime pays large dividends as long as the criminal is out of jail, but doesn't pay even a "preacher's salary" when the lawbreaker runs afoul of the law. It is known with certainty that crime does not pay for the time the criminal spends behind the bars.

The point with which the public is concerned is that no figures, however conclusive of the economic failure of criminals, will have much effect on the activities of the criminal. If there is one thing that is impossible, it is to argue an underworld character, or even a potential criminal, into obedience to law. The crook is by nature a gambler, and he is willing to take chances of making good his escape after a robbery. He recognizes that he will be a loser if caught and convicted, but it is the large chance he has of escaping with no punishment, that helps make crime prevalent.

Law enforcement officers point to the fact that certainty of punishment of the big profiteers in the criminal game is what is most needed in the United States.

UNSUNG

Just as many a rose is born to blush unseen, the world is forever producing public benefactors of whom society never learns through their benefactions may make life easier for millions in the routine affairs of the day.

There was Louis Perlman, Russian immigrant who died in New York City the other day at the age of 70 after a long and useful life. In this life he accomplished more than merely running man's allotted span of years, yet few persons ever heard of him.

His greatest benefaction was the de-mountable rim for automobile tires—a gift only the pioneer motorist can appreciate, although it is daily saving the time, temper and knuckles of countless motorists. His invention was one of the greatest single improvements in automobile construction since the introduction of the horseless buggy.

Changing a tire on the highway is a matter of but a few minutes and very little effort today, whereas before Perlman's invention it was often a half day's work. Riding home on a flat was preferable to changing tires in the "good old days" of motoring. That was before 1906.

The public that likes its news in pictures is also indebted to Perlman, who played an important part in the early promotion of pictorial service in the newspapers.

The fine thing about having a husband is you can tell him who else you could have married.

If We Had Sense
If We Knew Everything
If Life Were Different

By MARSHALL MASLIN
If we had sense enough to say nothing when a grouch is upon us, how few regrets we should have.

If we did not pretend that we knew just how children ought to act, how much more love they would have for us.

If we were not so proud, how much fewer would be our regrets.

If we did not do foolish things occasionally, how pompous we would become.

If we did not take ourselves and our troubles so seriously, we would have more fun.

If we had more philosophy, how calm life would be.

If we never knew the pain of loneliness, what could we know of the joys of good companionship?

If we never had a toothache, what could we know of the other fellow's suffering?

If we never made a mistake, how insufferable we would be.

If we knew everything, how dull would be our lives.

If we knew nothing of the storms and chill of winter, how could we love the green sweetness of spring?

If we were never enslaved, what would we know of freedom?

If we did not quarrel, what then of the blessings of reconciliation?

If we always spoke the truth, what a throng of enemies we would make.

If we were never foolish, what salt would wisdom have?

If we did not believe in mysteries beyond our understanding, how dull our years would be.

If age did not bring some softness and generosity to our spirits, what cantankerous old folks we'd all become.

And if there were no contrasts, no disappointments, no ups and downs, no sudden changes, no pendulum in our lives, how would any man endure it?

We cry about our troubles, we moan when the smoothness of our lives is roughened and our dreams are destroyed, but deep within us we welcome the change and the uncertainty and the tossing rhythm of existence, and we would not, for any price, have it completely different.

WOULD-BE BENEFICIARIES.

You should realize that your wealthy relative senses that your apparent love and interest in him is due to your hope to benefit as an heir to something valuable.

Therefore your efforts to gain his favor are so apparent that they anger him instead of creating a favorable impression.

He is turning against you instead of turning to you.

Those of his relatives who have always treated him as he should be treated are the ones who will be remembered.

Which is quite as it should be, whether you like it or not.

Any relatives whose interest and apparent affection develops as the result of a hope for financial remuneration is not worthy of consideration.

Every very well-to-do person has a number of relatives whom he knows would wish he might die—the sooner the better, shameful as it sounds.

This is naturally not a comforting thought, neither is it conducive to his generosity to know certain ones are standing around waiting for the reading of the will.

In fact if he has no relatives who have proven their sincere regard he is very likely to leave his possessions to outsiders or to institutions.

Can you blame him for this?

If you are one of these would-be beneficiaries, you are not worthy of anything.

BOY, MY PUTTER!

To the golfer as he plays
Pleasure comes in many ways.
If his drive be straight and true
Joy his soul goes racing through.
But the second shot, it seems,
Holds the golfer's happiest dreams.
Told in merry words like these:
"Caddie, now my putter, please!"

Language has expressions queer:
"Check enclosed" to all is dear.
"Come to dine next Tuesday night!"
May be genuine delight.
So with golfers, one and each,
Long to make the perfect speech,
Phrase portraying mind at ease:
"Caddie, now the putter, please!"

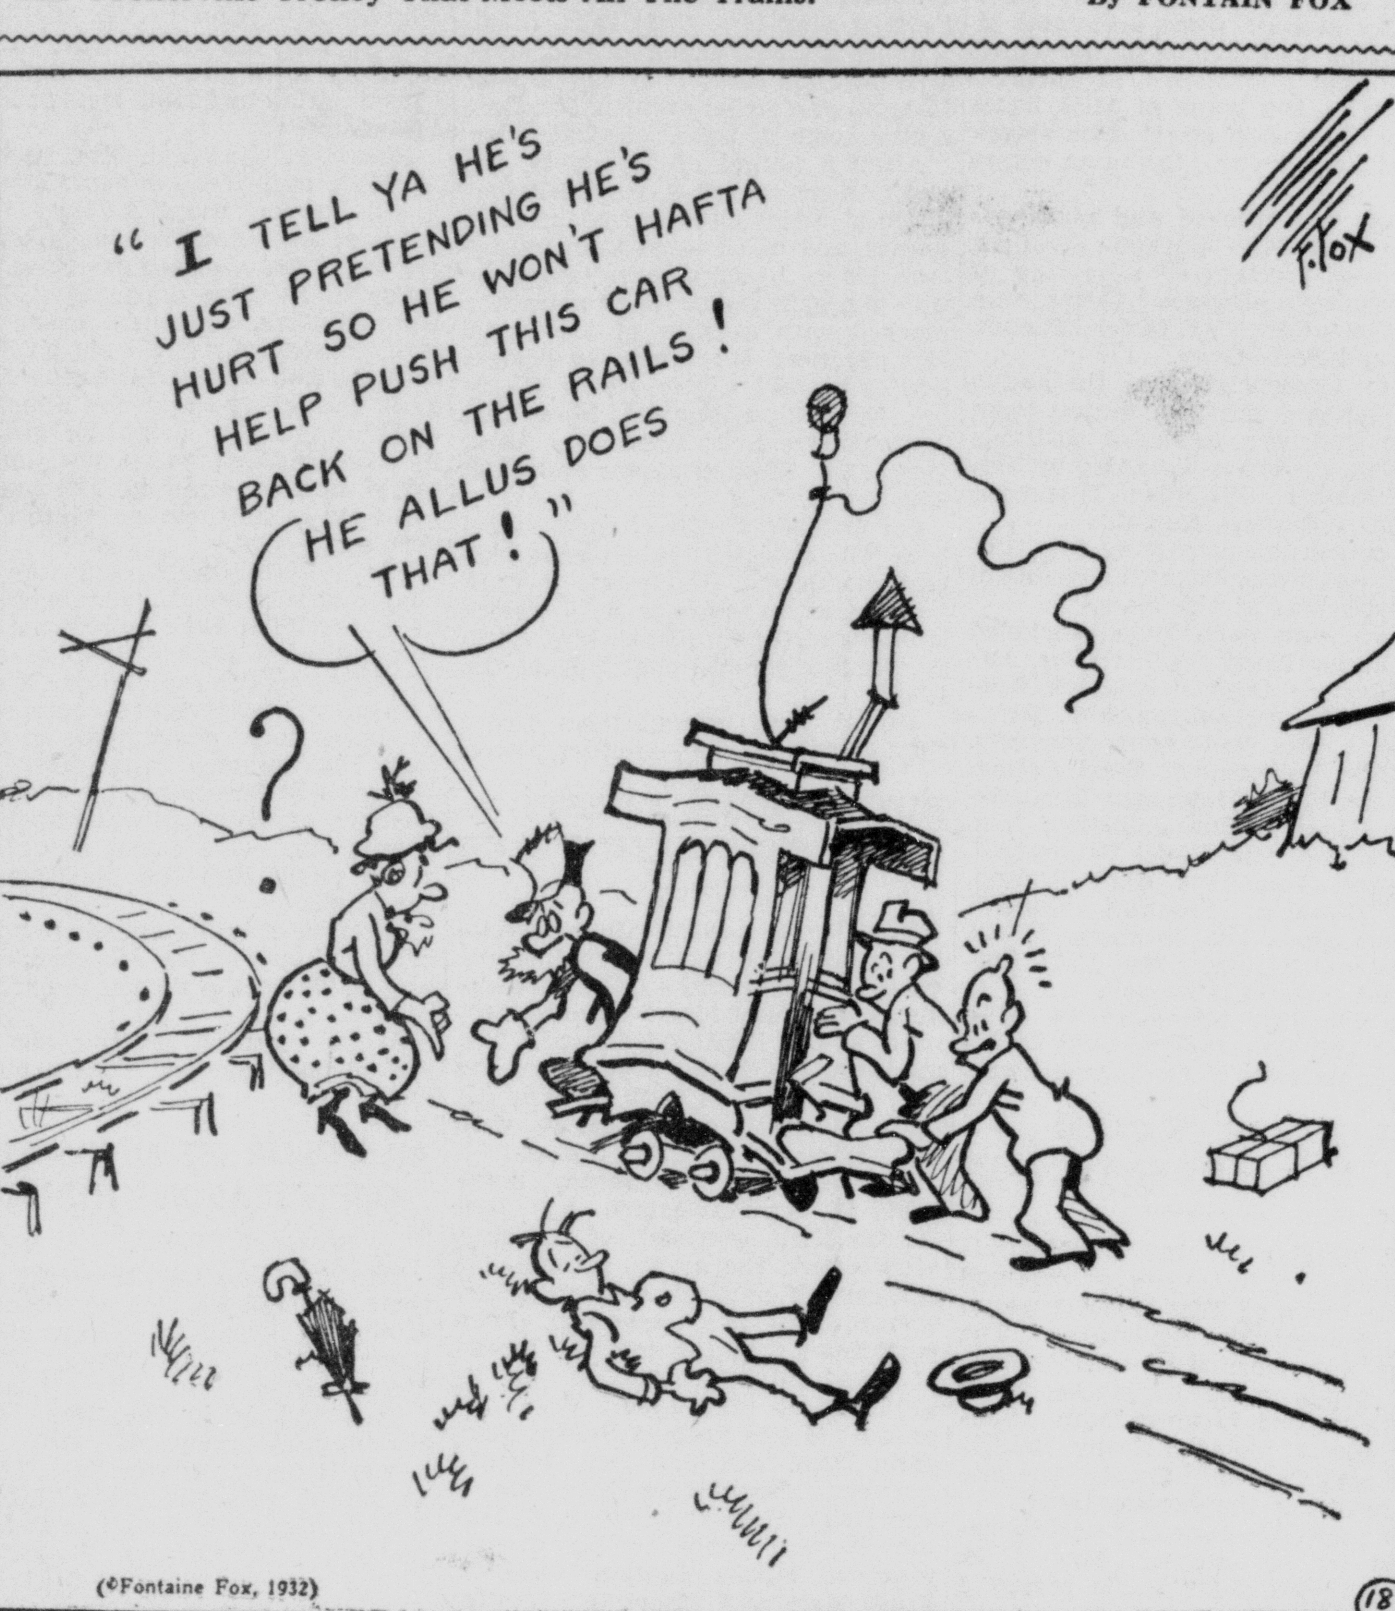

Golfer's joys at best are brief
Golf's a game of gloom and grief.
Trouble lines the golfer's way
Seldom comes the perfect day.
But sometimes that second shot
Lands him on the sacred spot.
Then he shouts adown the breeze:
"Caddie, now my putter, please!"

Watch the golfers when they play
Full two hundred yards away.
Many stray, but one is seen
Now and then to reach the green.
Others still must hack and hew,
He has little left to do,
Thus to boast the chance he'll seize:
"Caddie! Pass the putter, please!"

Our big men have at least spared us the crowning insult. They haven't urged us to be good sports about it.

European Efforts To Meet German Demands Approved

Delay In Holding Four-Power Conference, Preliminary To Geneva Proceedings, Turns Attention To Negotiations With France

Great Britain's attempt to assemble a four-power conference on the German desire for adequate armaments has aroused American interest, with some attention to the position of Norman H. Davis, observer for this country. Concern is voiced for the success of the proceedings at Geneva, with the fear that unless some definite understanding with Germany is established with the co-operation of France, Berlin participation in the main armament proceedings will be prevented.

"Germany's armaments will have to be marked up, as the Germans look at the matter, before they can be marked down," says the SPRINGFIELD (MASS.) REPUBLICAN. That paper offers the opinion on the present conditions: "In Europe the seriousness of this problem is fully realized, and although the proposed conference has been postponed the possibility that it may be held has been somewhat increased by Germany's tardy acceptance in principle, and by intimations that Premier Herriot is viewing the British proposal more favorably. He would prefer to have the conference held in Geneva rather than in London, but the British government would probably assent to this change. Later a light lunch was served the members of the auxiliary, bringing the evening to a close.

One of the features of the evening had been the report of the Allentown legislative meeting as given by the Statzer president, Mrs. George Kennedy, who was among those who attended.

The committee in charge of the evening's social time was Mrs. C. B. Schooley, Mrs. Rachel Clark and Mrs. Allen.

The lodge will meet again in November.

Observations
In 7th Ward

A little damage to hedge and one of the trees in the local park resulted from the large gathering of Hoover greeters of Saturday. . . . A local man was the victim of a pick-pocket in that same crowd. . . . Someone says that "Mahoningtown" is mis-spelled on the Presbyterian church. . . . The writer hasn't looked to see, so he won't vouch for the statement. . . . Howard Cox is having some time explaining about that black eye. . . . Remember about the Jameson Memorial hospital's food donation days and leave your donations at your local church. . . . Each of the churches has a committee woman to receive all canned goods, fruit or vegetables for the hospital. . . . Donation days are October 28 and 29.

Merchants Seek
New Bankruptcy
Law In Congress

Campaign Inaugurated Following
Meeting In St. Louis,
Hall Learns

Faced with the increasing number of individual bankruptcies, the grave problem confronting the retail merchants was discussed at a conference held last week in St. Louis by merchants and lawyers groups.

H. Preston Shealy, Washington counsel of the National Retail Credit association, told the groups that when the present bankruptcy act was passed back in 1898, retailers sold almost entirely for cash, whereas today nearly 27 billion of retailers sales are for open account or installment credit. This condition has caused individual bankruptcies to increase nearly three times as fast as merchant bankruptcies, even before the depression commenced. The retailers' problem has been to remedy this condition by appropriate amendments to the bankruptcy law. They believe they have solved the problem if congress will accept their proposals.

These amendments, if adopted, will, according to Ray F. Hall, manager of the New Castle Credit Exchange, permit an individual harassed by garnishments, but wishing to pay his debts over a period of time in installments, to do so without resort to bankruptcy through amortization proceedings which has been a part of the proposed Hattings bill. If the debtor accepts this method of settlement, and then through no fault of his own, fails to pay obligations, he then receives a discharge of his indebtedness, but if he does not go forward with his settlement in good faith, he is then adjudicated a bankrupt and in the course of that proceedings will not be relieved by a discharge from debts for the necessities of life.

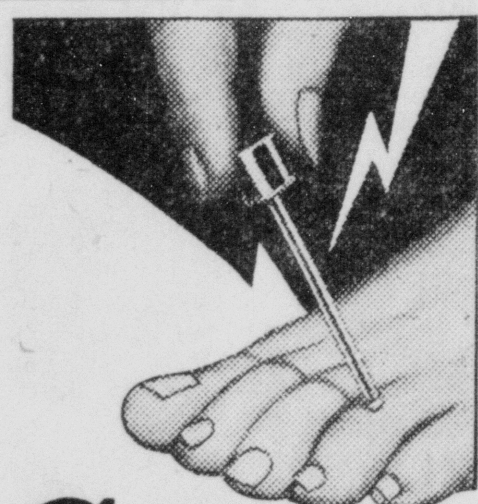

"It has been found," Mr. Hall stated, "that a considerable part of the indebtedness listed in individual bankruptcies are debts represented by money borrowers at exorbitant rates of interest. The proposed amortization procedure will help to relieve many of these unfortunate debtors by enabling them to have the necessary time to pay their debts in installments without being harassed by garnishments or other legal proceedings, and at the same time relieve the retailer who will obtain payment of a large volume of indebtedness that is otherwise lost."

"Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by the great animal artist, Paul Bransom . . . inspired by the savage ferocity of the striped tiger, known throughout the world as the terror of the jungle. "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes.

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

Decide To Attend Armistice Day Celebration At Butler, Pa.

Opening fall conference and dinner meeting for the Shenango Valley chapter of the Reserve Officers association and officers of the 395th infantry, was held last night in the ballroom of The Castleton and was well attended. The dinner was at 6:30 p. m., after which there was a business session presided over by First Lieutenant Paul A. Welsh, president of the Shenango Valley chapter, and then the conference on the subject of "Monograph of the Battles of Tullahoma and Chattanooga," directed by Major Joseph L. Lancaster, Inf., of the 99th division headquarters at Pittsburgh.

At the business session it was decided to continue the dinner meetings with all officers privileged to attend the conference after the dinner.

Resignation of Lieutenant Fred Blaha as secretary because of his return to college was accepted and Second Lieutenant D. Dennis was named as his successor.

Major C. E. Imbrie of Butler spoke on the preparations for Armistice Day at Butler and the chapter voted to attend. Captain Harvey G. Bintrim announced that Troop F would participate at Butler. Captain John B. Brettell raised the question of the use of uniforms at conferences and it was decided that this would be left to the discretion of the officers. Colonel H. L. Landers, chief of staff, 99th division, then spoke of the pleasure it was to be located in a section of the country where the defense of the country was appreciated and such an Americanism was displayed as in western Pennsylvania.

The secretary was instructed to write Captain Edgar Guerard Hamilton of the French Foreign Legion, expressing the sympathy of the organization and hope for his speedy recovery.

Major Lancaster then gave a detailed and interesting description of the battles of Tullahoma and Chattanooga during the Civil war, with the aid of maps, showing the military maneuvers employed by both sides. Those present at the meeting were Captain Donald Donley, 343 medical regiment; First Lieutenant John D. Kennedy, financial reserves, Third Corps headquarters; Captain John B. Brettell, 308th cavalry, 62nd cavalry division; Captain Harvey G. Bintrim, Troop F, 103rd cavalry; First Lieutenant George F. Mitchell, Troop F, First Lieutenant P. G. Titan Homecoming Day Saturday, October 29

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Oct. 18.—Saturday, October 29, is the annual alumni homecoming day at Westminster college.

Four events have already been planned for the day, and it is possible that one or two others will be arranged. The Titans meet Westminster in football, the Westminster cross country team runs Grove City, a student party has been planned for the evening and three one-act plays by the Little Theatre organization are scheduled. The Westminster game will give fans an opportunity to see Frank Wolf's great Yellowjacket team which has for two years defeated Penn State. The Little Theatre plays are to be presented on Friday evening. Fraternities and sororities plan dinners and luncheons for graduates and former students. As yet, no general alumni dinner has been planned. Alumni will be guests at the dance Saturday evening in the gymnasium.

Caliphs Prepares For Ceremonial

Annual Fall Event To Take Place At Cathedral On November 4

Up at the Cathedral on the hill the Caliphs of Bagdad are busy overhauling mysterious paraphernalia, and all over the western part of the state, several thousand pairs of eyes have assumed a gleam of anticipation, and a corresponding number of hearts are beating fast.

All because of a meeting held by the officers of the local chapter of the Caliphs of Bagdad, with the Imperial officers of the organization, at which permission was secured to put on the annual Fall Ceremonial, Friday night, November 4.

While the local chapter operates in the Cathedral, its members are drawn from the surrounding territory, within a radius of one hundred miles, and on the night of its party, large numbers of cars and busses drive in, bring members and candidates from Franklin, the Beaver Valley, Latrobe, Clarion, Cleveland, etc., to the number of several thousand, all wearing bright green robes.

There are many secret orders in existence, but none so secret and mysterious as this one. The Chief Caliph of the local chapter is Stanley Trester, with Judy Sypher as Collector of the Cash. Robert Thompson is chief electrician in charge of the light and similar effects, while the Hon. Bart Richards, Louis B. Round, Albert Street, Russell Melvin, and other prominent citizens have an active part in the proceedings.

These officers are all appointed by the Imperial Board of Directors, of whom Howard B. Richards is the Imperial Chief. If one inquires as to when the Imperial Board are, the answer is that they are a secret board, appointed by the Imperial Chief. Ask who then, appoints the Chief, and you find that he is appointed by the Imperial Board. And that is that. Very simple.

Anyhow members of this gang are past masters in the gentle art of providing fast and furious fun for the members, as evidenced by the fact that following one of their parties, and for weeks afterwards, any of the members engaged in the most serious of occupations, is apt to break out in uncontrollable laughter for no known reason in the world.

Even the candidates, who with reason, approach these affairs in fear and trembling, claim afterwards that they could not have missed the thing for anything. This is very true, they are not permitted to miss anything. Not with the 40 Thieves looking after them, and Ed. Pritchard holding down the job of Ali Baba.

Find Way to Cut Costs of Colds More Than Half

Years of research by Vick Chemists resulted last year in development of a new aid in preventing colds—Vicks Nose & Throat Drops. It is the ideal companion to Vicks VapoRub, the modern way of treating colds. Together with certain simple rules of health, these preparations form Vicks Plan for better Control of Colds.

Vicks Plan was thoroughly tested and proved last winter. In carefully supervised clinics in schools, colleges and homes, results showed that the Plan reduced the number, duration and severity of colds by half—and cut their costs even more. The satisfaction of hundreds of thousands of enthusiastic users—all over the country—confirm these tests. The Plan is fully explained in each Vicks package.

To WARD OFF Colds

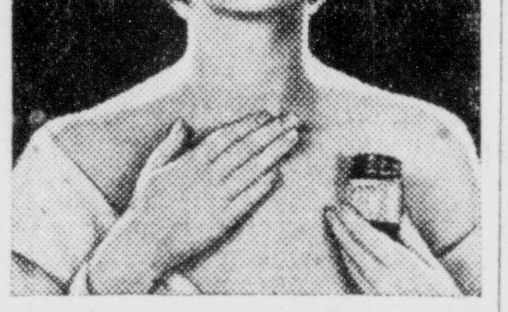

... use VICKS Nose & Throat DROPS

... just a few drops up each nostril at that first feeling of stuffiness or nasal irritation. Aids Nature's defense in preventing colds.

To GET RID of a Cold

... use VICKS VapoRUB

Its direct double action means quicker relief. The family standby in treating colds—over 26 million jars used yearly.

Mother And Two Children Dead

Wife Eliminates Family By Gas In Order To Set Husband Free

STRANGE CONFERENCE PRECEDES ACTION

(International News Service)
WOODMERE, N. Y., Oct. 18.—So overwhelming was the love Mrs. Jean Phillips bore for her actor husband, whose affections a married rival won, that in a tragic, fantastic effort to set him free for happiness with the "other woman" she sacrificed her life and that of her two children voluntarily, investigation into her death revealed today.

The husband, Guy Phillips, found his wife and their two children, Norma, 8, and Christopher, 4, dead from gas fumes yesterday. Mrs. Phillips had turned on the gas in the kitchen and retired to the adjoining bedroom with the children to await the end of life made wretched by the domestic triangle which threatened to break up her home.

Matters Discussed.
Only the night before, in the drawing room of the Phillips suburban home, there was enacted one of those sophisticated, poignant scenes often presented on the modern Broadway stage. The "other woman", Mrs. Joseph J. Seltzer, was invited by Mrs. Phillips to the latter's home to "talk things over intelligently."

There the two women faced each other in the presence of the man they both loved. Seltzer, who recently sued Phillips for $50,000 charging alienation of his wife's affection, refused a bid to attend the strange conference. Apparently no definite decision was reached at the meeting, since Seltzer was unwilling to agree to a divorce, although his suit for separation is pending.

Lawrence County Medical Society will have a very active part in the distribution of milk to needy children of the county under the monthly appropriation by the state of $1,000 for that purpose in Lawrence county. The milk will be largely distributed through the medium of schools.

The part that the medical society will play in the distribution of the milk will be in examining the children of the county to determine who needs the milk the most and after having determined this, to see that they receive the milk.

McBride Post To Plan Installation

New Officers Of Vets To Be Inducted With Ceremonies In November

Plans for the installation of the new officers will be made at the semi-monthly meeting of the Harry L. McBride post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, at their meeting in the Legion Home association building on Wednesday evening.

Installation will take place during November, but a definite date for the event will be decided upon at Wednesday evening's meeting. A. F. Miller, who has been quartermaster during the past year, is the newly elected commander.

Other matters of importance will be taken up and plans for a membership campaign discussed.

Local Students' Paintings Beautify Harrisburg Office

Two Senior high school art students whose attractive wall hangings help beautify the office of the state superintendent of public instruction, at Harrisburg, have every good reason to be proud.

For each day, from the time Dr. James N. Rule walks into his private office until he walks out again, his eyes are passing across the paintings.

Request Was Met
Students who were successful in having their work sent to the capital were Rose Florida, a senior A, and William McBurney, a senior B. Their work was completed after Dr. C. Valentine Kirby, state art director, had mailed a request here for some type of paintings for Dr. Rule's new office. The modern $4,000,000 state education building was recently opened.

The two applied the knowledge already gained in their senior high art classes to the paintings called for. They were designed and executed on unbleached muslin in an analogous color scheme, then lined and bound by hand. When completed the hangings were three feet wide and over four-and-a-half feet long, and yet the total cost was only 88 cents.

Dr. Kirby received them and relayed them to Dr. Rule. Letters of appreciation immediately came back to Miss Bess Galle, the art department head, and the two contributing students.

While one of the first things taught Senior high art students are the principles of color and design, another is commercial design which includes lettering.

In the first students apply color and design to inexpensive craft problems which will be helpful to the students in making useful and decorative articles for the home.

One of the most popular of the crafts is Batik which is from the Javanese art and is a process of painting on a cloth with hot wax and then applying the colors by means of dyes.

Others Win Honor
As to the commercial design work, Senior high students always find a way to apply their talent to some form of commercial art. Last spring 30 local entrants participated in the high school division of a national poster contest, sponsored by the Latham Foundation for the Promotion of Humane Education.

When results of this nation-wide contest became known, Senior high students were among those receiving, a second and a third prize and one certificate of merit. Those who placed were Madalyn Nicholson, Rose Florida and Harry Hood.

Three Officers Of National B. E. F. Have Resigned Their Positions

CAPT. SMITH IS WANTED IN GEORGIA

(International News Service)
UNIONTOWN, Pa., Oct. 18.—Only two weeks old, the newly organized National Bonus Expeditionary Force today appeared to be on the verge of dissolution following the resignation of three officers in protest of what they termed "too much one man."

The charge was leveled at Captain Hoke Smith, fugitive from justice on a Georgia warrant for desertion of his wife and baby. Smith, commander of the B. E. F., tried to "become the voice of the organization" last week when a delegation of the Bonus Army was given an audience with President Hoover, the disgruntled officers said.

Captain William E. Jordan, Savannah, Ga., national intelligence officer; C. B. Snodgrass, Wellsburg, W. Va., commander at Camp Rohrbacker, and Sergeant T. F. Allamong, Salem, O., first aid to Smith, were the officers who resigned.

All three men made it plain that Captain Smith's domestic troubles had nothing to do with their action. They said Smith's only duty at Washington was to have delivered the petition demanding immediate payment of the bonus and censuring President Hoover.

Captain Jordan is said to have spent nearly $10,000 of his own money financing the B. E. F.

Permits Granted For Buildings Which Have Not Been Completed

Only $79 has been realized from the sanction of building here during the first nine and one half months of the present year, according to figures obtained today from Neil Williams, clerk at the municipal bureau of building. Each permit nets the city 50 cents, he stated. One hundred and fifty eight permits were granted. The largest construction under way is the Woods block and the Matthews & Garbett building. The work has not yet been completed.

Not many houses were built this year.

Stubborn Coughs Ended by Recipe, Mixed at Home

Saves $2. No Cooking! So Easy!

Here is the famous old recipe which millions of housewives have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It takes but a moment to prepare, and costs very little, but it positively has no equal for quick, lasting relief.

From any druggist, get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with granulated sugar syrup, made with 2 cups of sugar and one cup of water, stirred a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed—it's so easy! Thus you make a full pint of better remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times the cost. It never spoils and children love its taste.

This simple mixture soothes and heals the inflamed throat membranes with surprising ease. It loosens the germ-laden phlegm and eases chest soreness in a way that is really astonishing. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway Pine, the most reliable healing agent for severe coughs. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

New Castle-Ellwood High Football Teams To Resume Relations

After Lapse Of Six Years
Ellwood City High Grid
Team Returns To
New Castle

Ellwood City Will Send Fine
Team To Battle Bridenbaugh's "Red Hurricane"

New Castle high school football team and Ellwood City high grid team will resume friendly football relations Friday night at Taggart field under the floodlights. They didn't know anything about playing night football back in 1926 when the last game was played by the two teams. But this is a new day and age and so we find Lawrence county's two largest high schools facing each other across the barred field. Traditional rivals for many years, the teams will find new faces when they clash Friday.

In fact of that New Castle team that faced Ellwood City back in 1926 only Coach Bridenbaugh, Gardner Klee and Thomas remain. Ellwood City has had several coaches since Peck Lee, the present county detective, gave up the reins, and now we find "Ganzzy" Benedict the mentor at Ellwood City high. Peck Lee was the coach in 1926.

Those Old Teams.

Well, just as long as we are digging up past history here, glimpse this lineup of the two teams used in the last game played between these two schools. Many of the boys who played that cold bleak November afternoon at what was then Franklin field, have gone on to college and made names for themselves, one of them an All-American. New Castle had Baldy McGrath and Ostrosky at the ends, Bill Kirk and Christian at the tackles, Dick Carbo and Milligan at the guards and Robinson at center. Ellwood City had McCarthy and Demas at the ends, Neff and Robberman at the tackles, Labate and Mains at the guards and Jim MacMurdo at center. The backfield consisted of Johnston, Justine, Statti and Sanders. The New Castle backfield consisted of Sillman at quarter, Klaber and Turk at the halves and Tommy Harper at fullback. That was a backfield. Were they better than the present team? The score of that game in 1926 was 13 to 0 in case you are interested, and New Castle won.

Many Became Stars.

Let's see how many of those 22 young men who played the final New Castle-Ellwood game here went to college and made good in big ways with colleges and universities. Well, we have to start with the All-Americans and Jim MacMurdo, former Pitt tackle and captain, is the only one, I believe, who has been picked so far. Then there is Tommy Harper with Penn State this year and going fine, having a regular starting berth. Played against Harvard last week.

Nick DiCarbo, now one of the outstanding linemen with Duquesne university and almost sure for district and maybe national recognition. Bill Kirk played at Amherst for three years and was considered a good lineman. Jack Christian made the Purdue team in the Big Ten and held down a regular tackle berth. Tony Ostrosky is now the second string right end at Carnegie Tech and good enough to be the varsity end. Sillman played one year at Westminster and one at Duke. Turk played a year at Duquesne.

Blackboard Drill.

New Castle has a whirlwind team this year and they are undefeated. Coach Bridenbaugh gave the New Castle team a rest Monday afternoon due to the inclement weather. A long blackboard drill in which new plays were given out was held instead of a workout.

New Castle will take no chances with this Ellwood City team. Coach Benedict has a great little team built around Luxemburg, the big punting fullback, and while they have not had such good luck so far, have a 13 to 12 victory over Grove City last Saturday and they are looking ahead to the New Castle game with eagerness.

Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner has dispatched something like 1500 tickets to Ellwood City. They will likely ask for more than that.

Titans To Meet St. Bonaventure

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Oct. 18.—Westminster College gridgers following the hard Grove City game on Saturday, are pointing to the contest with St. Bonaventure at Olean, N. Y. on Saturday.

Coach John Lwther will take a squad of 24 players to Olean to meet the Bonnies. The team will leave New Wilmington early Friday morning, and will probably make Bradford the headquarters, staying there Friday night.

While the St. Bonaventure contest is a major one on the Titan card, it

The entire western bleachers are being reserved for the good citizens of Ellwood City. They will of course occupy many seats also in the concrete stands.

Bands to Play.

It is altogether likely that Ellwood City's finely uniformed band will be at Taggart field Friday night tooting their loudest when some of the Ellwood backfield men break away for long runs. The New Castle band will be there. It will be an imposing sight, the red and black New Castle band and the blue and white Ellwood band.

Fans in both cities have been eager for this fray for quite some time and now their wishes are to be granted. Friday night is the night. Taggart field is the scene, and all roads in Lawrence county will point toward New Castle.

It's going to be a gala night. Two fine football team, rivals, friendly too, and if the weather man is kind, a nice crisp evening and everything will be set.

YOUNG TOUKAMON
IN 6-ROUND BOUT

Can a good right hand puncher beat a good left hand puncher? This is the query that may be solved and in no uncertain manner one week from Wednesday night when Frankie Bojarski of Erie and Mickey Duris of Cleveland meet in a bout listed for 10 rounds.

Bojarski has had a sensational run of success. In fact he has only been checked once. Duris has been a rugged, hard-socking, consistent performer and he has the chance to now step into the limelight.

"It's a funny thing about these lads. Both of 'em got a start toward some of their game in bouts at the bowl. When he was only a preliminary kid Bojarski fought Johnny Jennings.

It was the first time that two left handers milled against each other at the bowl and before their fists had been finished fans had certainly witnessed a rapid-fire match.

Toukamon To Box

Duris came on and fought Paris Cangey. Paris substituted on three days notice and while he wasn't in the best of the pink he put up a great fight but Duris won. He scored two knockdowns.

Duris and Bojarski should prove a "natural match." Both of them carry T. N. T. in their gloves, and neither the ribbon type of batters and anything's liable to happen, first bell on.

Homer Gray and Jack Moke will meet in a six round bout and Young Toukamon who knocked off Vito Mangine will get a whirl in a six round bout. His opponent has not yet been picked.

Toukamon picked himself off the floor to beat Vito who grew weak in the second round. The Gypsy named kid came through later on and the fight was over for Vito.

Al Hefferan, former amateur of Oil City, will oppose Pete Boy, who will turn professional for a four round bout. Ellwood fans say Pete shows prospects of getting something out of the 150 pound class.

There will be an additional four round bout and the five bout show will be a benefit for the World War Veterans of Lawrence county. The body is commanded by Dave Lewellyn.

does not mean as much to Titan followers as the Waynesburg, Thiel, kingdom, and Geneva games yet to be played.

Waynesburg will be met in the alumni homecoming game at New Wilmington on October 29 and Thiel will be met at home on November 5.

Muskingum will be played at New Concord, O., and Geneva will be played at Beaver Falls.

The Titans have featured homecoming contests of rival schools in other years, but this year the Westminster games are set on homecoming days for Grove City, Muskingum and St. Bonaventure.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

With the football campaign nearing the halfway mark the teams making the most prominent bids for titles are: Midwest, Michigan and Purdue of the Big Ten and Notre Dame; East, Pitt, Colgate, Fordham, Penn, Harvard, Columbia and New York U. South, Tennessee, Kentucky, Auburn and Virginia Poly; Far West, Southern California and Stanford of the Pacific Coast conference and St. Mary's of Oakland; Southwest, Texas and Texas Christian and Rocky Mountain district, Utah and Colorado university.

Tus McLaughrey, former Westminster and Pitt star and later coach at the Blue and White institution plucked another feather on Saturday when his Brown proteges defeated Yale 7 to 2. Chase and Gilbane, main cogs in the Bruin backfield carried the ball in a steady march down the field and Gilbane scored on his third stab at the center. Chase added the extra point. Yale scored a safety.

Dave Bancroft is no longer affiliated with the New York Giants and his supporters are trying to land the management of the Cincinnati Reds for Dave. When John McGraw retired as manager of the Giants Bancroft who was a coach was shunted into the business department of the team and now is through entirely, according to eastern reports.

Homer Gray, local middleweight, will get a test when he fights rugged Jack Moke of Cleveland in a six round bout. Moka is not a bear on science but is long on punch. Homer has been winning consistently and should he score another victory will have proved the most consistent winner in this section for some time.

When Battling Battalino grew too big and retired as featherweight champion of the world he started something. At present three boys are accredited with being the champion. New York state recognizes Kid Chocolate, the National Boxing association assigns the title to Tommy Paul and California has elected to name Baby Arizmendi as the king of the 126-pound fighters.

Nothing better could have happened to Pitt than that the Army game turned out to be a whole lot tougher than had been anticipated. The opinion of James Long of the Sun-Tele. He comments that "for one thing there was more glory in winning. There is far more credit due to the brilliant Heller and his mates, Skladany, Cuba and Hooker, for having beaten a greatly underrated Cadet team that really is one of the best in the east in as thrilling a battle as ever was fought anywhere, than if it had been a walk-away victory like that of last year."

F. C. Churchill, a senior instructor at the Fort Riley, Kansas, cavalry school, has been training army jumpers since 1906 and in his opinion "a young fast horse is all right in his place but the clearing of high hurdles and water hazards is a job for veterans, most of whom are at least 12 years old." The instructor declares that he prefers the older jumpers among the 515 in the cavalry school. His annual list among the best in their class, are not placed in training until they are four or five years old. Dick Waring and Babe Wharton, two of the mounts ridden by the U. S. Olympic team at Los Angeles, are 15 years old, he reports.

Saturday's game between Yale and Brown was not without its injuries, and two of the Yale gridgers will not be in the clash with Army next Saturday. Felix Hughes received a twisted knee and Joe Crowley, regular halfback, also received an injury to his knee. Tus McLaughrey coaches the Brown eleven, which won.

Warren Heller, Pitt's crack halfback, holds the lead in the western Pennsylvania college football scoring parade. He has scored 96 points. Weinstock, Pitt, is second with 25, and Deale of W. & J., Johnson of St. Vincent and Kavel of Tech are deadlocked with 24 each.

LON WARNEKE IS SECOND CHOICE

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Mr. "Chuck" Klein of the Philadelphia Ball Club was the most valuable player in the National League for the season of 1932.

So say a committee of sport writers in an official communique released for publication this morning, with some figures tending to indicate that Mr. Klein was not only valuable, but unique. According to the committee, if the man ever gets any better, he'll be perfect.

Against a par of 30, he polled a total of 78 points, ten more than Lon Warneke, the young Chicago pitcher who finished second, and twenty more than Mr. "Lefty" O'Doul, of Brooklyn, who finished third. Mr. O'Doul led both leagues in hitting drive in his share of runs and caught his share of flies but otherwise was of no value whatever and naturally enough the committee kept this in mind in arriving at its choice.

It voted Klein six first places and two seconds; Warneke, two firsts, four seconds, one third and one seventh place; O'Doul, one second, four thirds, two fourths and one eighth place. Paul Waner, Pittsburgh with 37 points; Rags Stephenson, Chicago, with 32; Bill Terry, New York, with 25; Donx Hurst, Philadelphia, with 24; "Pie" Traynor, Pittsburgh, with 17; Bill Herman, Chicago, with 16; Mel Ott, New York, with 15, and Bob Brown, the young Boston pitcher with 10, were the only players to finish in the double numbers.

Poreda won eight rounds, one went to Tommy and the other was even.

Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight king who was the referee, did not have to cast a vote as the judges agreed the conqueror of Ernie Schaaf and Primo Carnera had without dispute taken the measure of the once sturdy Philadelphia.

Tommy came through the fight rather badly and was bleeding at the finish. Stanley was without a mark at the end.

SHENANGO ELEVEN
FAVORED TO WIN

(Special To The News)

BESSEMER, Oct. 18.—First of the really important County Class B football games will be played here Friday afternoon when Shenango high tackles Bessemer high. As Bessemer has a practically new team this year the "dope" favors Shenango.

Coach Fredericks has been handicapped this season as only three regulars remained over from last season. They are Percie, De Armend and Plevnic. Shenango possesses a number of veterans in their lineup and during games this season has displayed a strong offense. So far Shenango has not lost a game while Bessemer has lost several, deadlocked in one and won only from Clintonville.

Steady Winners

So far Shenango has not met an opponent that could check their steady offense while Bessemer has shown strength on the offense practically in only two games, the one in which the Fredericks tied Zella-nople and came on in the second half to win at Clintonville but despite the inexperience of the Bessemerites they hope to play the kind of a game against Shenango that

The Williams football team of the South Side opened their 1932 season Saturday afternoon at the Fall track by topping the Croton A. C. 40 to 0. The Southsiders showed a strong attack with Luke Rowe and Brown scoring two touchdowns and "Tip" Richards and George Mike one apiece.

It was the fine line play of the Williams team that made the victory possible. The backfield displayed plenty of speed and power. Luke Rowe former New Castle star and Hobby Brown former Shenango high luminary led the Williams attack, with "Tip" Richards and George Mike aiding nicely with markers. The Croton team showed plenty of spirit but could not cope with the strong Williams team.

Stanley Poreda Beat Loughran

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 18.—Stanley Poreda, New Jersey's contender for the heavyweight boxing crown, once again jumped into the limelight today. In a workmanlike job here last night he scored an easy 10-round triumph over Tommy Loughran of Philadelphia, former light-heavyweight champion, at the arena before 9,000 fans.

Poreda won eight rounds, one went to Tommy and the other was even.

Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight king who was the referee, did not have to cast a vote as the judges agreed the conqueror of Ernie Schaaf and Primo Carnera had without dispute taken the measure of the once sturdy Philadelphia.

Ellwood Priming For Great Tilt With New Castle

Lawrence County Rivals To Meet Again On Gridiron
After Six Years

TOWN TO CLOSE UP FRIDAY NIGHT

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 18.—After an anxious wait of six years, sports followers in the county will once more be given the opportunity to witness that classical grid tilt when Ellwood High and New Castle High resume their rivalries for supremacy, Friday night, at Taggart Stadium, New Castle. Little doubt is held that all attendance records at Taggart Stadium will be broken Friday night. According to reports from the local high school, New Castle police will have their hands full regulating traffic from Ellwood City. The principal's office has already been swamped with requests for tickets. The largest student turnout in years will accompany their grid representatives to New Castle. So in reality there will be two battles—one on the gridiron and the other in the cheering sections.

R. J. Hawke, famed Carnegie Tech cheer leader of past years, who is now an instructor in the local high school, is drilling the student body in cheers all this week. The red and black followers will certainly have to do some mighty yelling if they are to class with Ellwood cheering, in view of the samples recently heard at Lincoln High. Ellwood High's enlarged 50 piece band will be on hand to liven things up from the musical angle in conjunction with New Castle's crack band. The town will practically be closed at this time and all roads will lead to New Castle. Altogether Friday will be an interesting evening.

Coaches Benedict and Ferrate have started intensive training for this important contest. The squad, town, and coaches are tinged with excitement as they prepare for this game. The blue and white may surprise the Bridenbaugh coached eleven. An altogether new attack is expected to be unleashed by the Benedict men. A special skill drill was held last night in which several new plays were given. Later a dummy scrimmage on these in the gymnasium was held. The coaches have to say much about the game, but they give the impression of having something up their sleeve.

The locals are the underdogs in the coming game. The line is being specially drilled to stop New Castle's powerful thrusts. The ends have been receiving some valuable tips also. Ellwood's hopes will be pinned on this forward wall which has withstood several goal line thrusts already.

Coach Phil H. Bridenbaugh is seeing that his warriors are not imbued with too much confidence. There is no better man than he to judge the capabilities of an Ellwood team when playing New Castle. Yet he well knows that both teams will fight to the final whistle.

PARKER-HALL WEDDING

Upon their return home immediately following the congratulatory period a delicious wedding dinner was served at the home of the groom's parents at Lillyville to members of the immediate families. The bride's table was cleverly centered with a large wedding cake. Later in the evening a group of friends and neighbors gathered and tendered the happy couple a serenade to which they responded in a pleasing manner generously treating their guests.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hall are well-known in this vicinity, the bride having visited relatives here often, and was graduated from the Vandergrift high school with the class of '31 while the groom is engaged in farming at Lillyville. They will reside at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hall.

Damage Done By Hurricane Seen In Illustrations

Porto Rican Towns And Villages Leveled, Pictures Received Here Show

Although it is impossible to read the inscriptions underneath pictures contained in the Puerto Rico Illustrated, received from Bert Stevenson by Fred L. Rentz, are more eloquent than words. The Puerto Rico Illustrated is an illustrated magazine published in San Juan, and contains a great number of pictures of the damage done by the recent hurricane. The printing is in Spanish.

Mr. Stevenson resides just between Rio Piedras and the town of Toa Baja, in the center of the storm area, but escaped uninjured. All that remains of one big sugar plant is a twisted pile of junk, according to the pictures, and the ruins of buildings within a mile and a half of the Stevenson place show little remaining but crumbled walls and roofless buildings.

The bodies of about 20 persons, taken from one building at Arecibo are shown, including men, women and children.

The residential section of San Juan was badly damaged as the pictures show.

and Mrs. Tony Ross. The ladies will hold another one of these sewing circles Wednesday and Thursday of next week. Donations of elastic and thread will be appreciated very much.

FAREWELL PARTY

The Loyal Daughters Bible class of the Methodist church held a towel shower at the home of Miss Alta Hoffmaster in honor of Mrs. Alice Blackstock, who is moving to New Castle, recently. The evening was spent with music and social chat. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Hoffmaster, assisted by her daughter Alta.

ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dodds entertained the 500 club in their home Wednesday evening. Three tables of cards were in play and music and singing were the other diversions of the evening. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughters, Mildred and Edwina.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Kuhn, daughter Emma Grace, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Biddle, Mrs. Roy Unangst, Mrs. Sara McIntosh, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hofmeister and daughter Dorothy, and the hostess and her family. Mrs. Horace Dodds was a special guest.

The next meeting will be held in November at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Biddle.

Stockman Gets Hurricane Views

Receives Copy Of Illustrated Magazine Showing Damage Done In Porto Rico

H. Clare Stockman, chief of the New Castle fire department, has received a copy of the Puerto Rico Illustrated, an illustrated magazine published in San Juan, Porto Rico, from his friend, Bert Stevenson, former New Castle resident, who was in the center of the hurricane area but escaped unharmed.

The magazine is published in Spanish so it is impossible to understand what the inscriptions underneath the pictures say, but one can easily tell by looking at the pictures. The damage done by the hurricane there several weeks ago must have been terrific. Residences and factories are leveled and trees blown down. Some of the pictures also show the steps taken to provide relief for stricken families.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

New Castle had a rather unusual woman as its guest last night, Mrs. Helen Schluraf of Erie, Pa., the only woman county commissioner in existence, insofar as we know was here and addressed the members of the Business and Professional Women.

Not content with picking up her husband's floral business when he died, making a success of it, getting herself elected state president of the B. P. W., and later national first vice president, Mrs. Schluraf turned her hands to politics in Erie county and up there along the lake customers, politics is a game played for blood. And to the surprise of her male opponents she led the ticket.

The lady is as womanly as you care to meet but when she starts to talk she asks no favors because of her sex. She meets the world on its own terms, takes everything in its stride and after listening to her talk as we had the pleasure of doing, you realize why she made the politicians of Erie county cry "uncle" before she got through with her race for county commissioner.

As for the governmental philosophy she expounded before the B. P. W. it makes sense, is interesting to hear, and if the advice she gave the ladies of the B. P. W. and guests is headed some good will be accomplished.

Sidney Johns of the Pennsylvania railroad is wondering how you go about collecting twenty five cents from Benito Mussolini. Sid it seems feels that he was relieved of a quarter down in New York City, strictly against his wishes.

He was driving out Riverside Drive and with his friends noticed that the Rex, the splendid new Italian liner was lying at anchor in the river. They unloaded and went down to take a peek. And found a couple of thousand people lined up waiting to get aboard.

They finally got up to the gang plank and found that taking a peek at the liner would cost them a two bit. Now Sid wants to know how to get that quarter back. Not that it wasn't worth a quarter.

We have learned the reason why the Pennsylvania football team are that way. A New York socialist commenting upon the many football game says this: "blast furnaces, publishing mills, oil wells, and coal mines of the smoke-ridden Allegheny Valley breed a hard hitting type of boy who takes naturally to football."

The gentleman was attempting to alibi the Pitt licking the Cadets took, but apparently seems to forget some of the stars the Army has had who came from this end of the world. There was Fats Henry and Tiny Hewitt, and Garbisch and Harry Wilson, all of them from Western Pennsylvania. And after Saturday's game the Army scouts will be looking for more of their "blast furnace" type.

And just in passing, if you're still thinking of football, why wouldn't it be a smart idea to bring that Shenango township-Union township game into New Castle and put it on at the stadium? The game this year will be worth seeing, the two teams are evenly matched, and as a fillup for an empty Saturday afternoon I can think of nothing more zestful.

Just another reminder of something you might overlook. Set aside that jar of jelly or peaches or canned beans that you are going to send up to the Jameson Memorial hospital on its Donation Day this month. And if you can spare a couple of a dozen, better yet. Every jar of canned goods will be just another wallop at Old Man Overhead and brother you're surprised at the Old Man's carrying on with hospitals all over the country these days.
